We provide expert advice and support on employee and labour relations issues with a specialism in European Works Councils, European Company employee involvement agreements, employee consultation requirements, International Framework Agreements, the ILO Conventions, the UN Guiding Principles and OECD Guidelines complaints.

Works Councils in the European Union (EU) - acc.com

Rather than applying to companies with employees in two or more European countries, this directive is aimed at national works councils for companies of just 50 employees or more. European states can and have adopted much lower thresholds with legislation that goes much further in granting power to works councils.
