Plateau problem - Encyclopedia of Mathematics

The problem of finding a minimal surface with a given boundary . The problem was first formulated by J.L. Lagrange (1760), who reduced it for the class of surfaces of the form to the solution of the Euler Lagrange equation for a minimal surface. Experiments by J. Plateau (1849) showed that a

Isoperimetric inequalities and the problem of Plateau [Hd- <_]0A] . (0.11) We proceed along well known lines to establish the regularity of these solutions and the variational (in-)equality in Section 5. In the final section we show that our existence theorem contains all the above mentioned results concerning Plateau's problem (although in some cases the reduction of the proof to the verification of an isoperimetric condition does not
