Thinking in Circles: An Essay on Ring Composition by Mary ...

Thinking in Circles is a gift to the twenty-first reader. Mary Douglas presents formalism at its finest with sublime simplicity. Seven criteria serve to elevate and explain several works often dismissed as unstructured and unsophisticated. Ring composition places meaning in the middle of a text reflecting and refracting the beginning and end, mirrored and masked throughout. Her examples range Thinking in Circles | Plan, Do, Check, Correct.

Everything has a beginning. Maybe not. Take circles. No beginning. No end. Or, conversely, circles have an infinite number of beginnings and endings at every point along the circumference.
